

ASIEDU GILBERT

I am Asiedu Gilbert, a graduate of Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology (KNUST) in Kumasi, Ghana, where I pursued BSc. Business Administration with a focus on Accounting, achieving First Class Honours. Currently, I serve as a Teaching Assistant in the Department of Accounting, Banking and Finance at Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology. From the academic year 2020 to 2023, I was fortunate to be a beneficiary of Educational Pathways International (EPI).

I express profound gratitude to EPI for its transformative impact on my academic and personal development. The generous scholarship not only alleviated the financial challenges of higher education but also presented numerous opportunities. EPI's commitment to holistic growth is commendable, with workshops on soft skills shaping my character and enhancing my skills. The guidance and support from EPI has been instrumental in my academic success and personal growth.

Choosing to pursue a career in Accounting is rooted in its pivotal role in ensuring financial transparency, regulatory compliance, and strategic planning for businesses. Accounting equips individuals with the skills needed to navigate the financial landscape, contribute to organizational success, and make informed decisions globally.

My career aspirations involve becoming a proficient Accountant and a skilled Business Analyst. To achieve this, I've commenced the journey with the Association of Certified Chartered Accountants (ACCA) to attain a globally recognized accreditation. This aligns with my goal of mastering financial management intricacies and gaining international recognition. Looking forward, I plan to enhance my analytical skills through a master's education in business analytics. This dual expertise is integral to my vision of contributing effectively to strategic decision-making, bridging financial management and data-driven insights for optimal business performance.

Educational Pathways International has provided a sense of belonging, love, and a familial connection. The Organization has opened my eyes to numerous opportunities, and I am forever grateful for their support, teachings, guidance, and counselling. I am committed to relentlessly pursuing my dreams and self-development because I understand that EPI seeks my success. Thank you very much, EPI.
