

RAPHAEL AMANKWA

I am Raphael Amankwaa, I offered Bachelor of Laws at the Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology (KNUST), Ghana. Whiles at KNUST I was privilege to be awarded a comprehensive scholarship by the Educational Pathways International (EPI). Since I became beneficiary of EPI scholarship programme, it has had a momentous impact on my life, academics, and goals. It has helped me to develop a strong sense of leadership, teamwork, and communication skills. I have also been able to network with other students and professionals in other fields, which has broadened my perspective and knowledge.

I chose to study Law because I am passionate about justice and fairness. I believe that everyone deserves equal rights and opportunities, and I am determined to use my knowledge and skills to make a positive impact in my community and Ghana.

My career goal is to become an astute private legal practitioner and to use my legal expertise to promote and protect justice and to ensure the predominance of the rule of law.

In the future, I plan to establish a non-profit organization that provides legal aid and education to people who cannot afford it. I also intend to work with local communities to promote human rights and social justice to all and sundry especially the needy and the poor, who stands the risk of injustice because of their financial predicaments.

Finally, I would like to express my appreciation to the management of Educational Pathways International, benefactors and all philanthropist who through their enormous magnanimity conferred on me this privilege and made my undergraduate program a success and for providing me with this opportunity to pursue my dreams and make a positive impact in my community and Ghana as a whole.
